

- Prep a set of scenario cards below for each group by cutting out the cards
- Print off a set of 'Sorting titles' for each group

1. Yasmine is playing an online game. One of the other players says "Girls aren't real gamers - I bet she's using her little brother's account!"

2. Yasmine is reading a comic book. One of her classmates sees and says "I didn't know you like comics! You're really cool - for a girl"

3. Yasmine wants a chemistry set for her birthday. Her grandparents get it for her and say that she'll make a great scientist when she's older.

4. Yasmine and Tom start a team game on the playground. They both pick teams that include boys and girls.

5. Tom makes his friend Jake a friendship bracelet during art class. A class mate asks “Why did you make that? It’s a girl’s thing!”
6. Tom goes to the cinema and watches a film about boys dancing ballet. He wants to try dancing but is worried he’ll get teased like the boy in the film.
7. Tom’s auntie looks at a picture of Yasmine and Tom. She says Yasmine is really pretty and asks Tom why she is not his girlfriend.
8. Yasmine and Tom decide to start a reading club. Each Thursday they bring the book they are reading to lunch and share what is happening in the story.

FAIR

UNFAIR

NOT SURE